

INTERNATIONAL MIGRATION INSTITUTE SEMINAR SERIES

Trinity term 2016 Wednesdays, 1–2pm

Seminar Room 2, ODID, 3 Mansfield Road, Oxford OX1 3TB

J. Maniago/ ILO 2013

- 27 April Birthplace, bloodline and beyond: How ‘Liberian citizenship’ is currently constructed in Liberia and abroad
Robtel Neajai Pailey (University of Oxford)
- 4 May Emigration and the distribution of income per natural: evidence from Egypt
Joachim Jarreau (University of Paris–Dauphine)
- 11 May Assembling circulation: Governing the mobility of health professionals from the Philippines to Germany
Cleovi Mosuela (Bielefeld University)
- 18 May From coffee to industry: Changes in migrants’ characteristics in metropolitan areas in Brazil
Guilherme M. Ortega (University of Campinas)
- 25 May The cultural transmission of the fertility transition: evidence from internal migrations in 19th century France
Hillel Rapoport (University of Paris 1 and Paris School of Economics)
- 1 June Institutions and their representations of compatriotism: The case of diaspora politics of Slovakia and the Slovak diaspora in Romania
Natalia Blahova (Slovak Academy of Sciences)
- 8 June Youth in transregional flows: An ethnography of mobility and instant product consumption among cross-border Chinese Malaysian youth
Fangfang Li (Amsterdam Institute for Social Science Research)
- 15 June ‘To have and have not’: International migration, poverty and inequality in Algeria
Mouhoub el Mouhoud (University of Paris–Dauphine)

Sandwiches will be provided

For further information visit www.imi.ox.ac.uk/events or contact:
Yasser Moullan e. yasser.moullan@qeh.ox.ac.uk t. 01865 281 734
Robtel Neajai Pailey e. robtel.pailey@qeh.ox.ac.uk
t. 01865 281 735

